Has the faith of our fathers proclaimed so loudly at Iguala by the LIBREATOR, been respected? Let the people answer for me. . . . . . . .

But facts answer for them.

The idea so rauch vanuted by Mr. Arroya of the east inblishment of a regular line of stemers between Mexico and the United States, which he attributes to the present Government, is not a new one. The steamnames as well as their persons are above vulgar accusa-
